

FitCuba 2019, from 6 to 11 May

Category: Tourism

Published: Monday, 06 May 2019 16:15

Written by Ivania Díaz

Hits: 3164

The International Tourism Fair of Cuba FITCuba 2019 is the most important meeting of the tourist sphere in the region and this time up to its 39th edition. Its headquarters are the fortress of San Carlos de la Cabaña -an 18th century construction that forms part of the historic center of Old Havana and its system of colonial fortifications, declared Cultural Patrimony of Humanity in 1982.

From May 6 to 11, 2019, this space is open, where professionals and visitors will enjoy the varied offer that characterizes Cuba and, on this occasion, its capital, a fascinating city that will soon reach its 500th anniversary. A professional fair, where days of commercial and promotional exchange will be dedicated.

Events and incentive trips is on this occasion the product through which will show the world the benefits of this great island for the entertainment industry. Cultural and tourist events of diverse spheres have their headquarters in Cuba, among them the International Habanos Festival, the Gibara International Film Festival, the Fire Festival, FITCuba, TURNAT, FOTOSUB just to mention a few.

Spain is the invited country in this day of meetings and novelties.